

U.S.-Wide General Strike Is Union Threat If Government Moves Landlocked Ships

Truck Strike Has Not Hit Local Deliveries; N. Y. Faces Layoffs

Chain Store Managers Say Effects Will Come Without Warning; Book Manufacturers, Cotton Among Operations Affected

The trucking and shipping strikes which have badly snarled New York's food distribution have not yet materially affected deliveries in this territory, a Freeman survey revealed this morning.

The uptown branch of the Great Bull Markets reported that sugar deliveries had been delayed but other produce was coming through according to schedule.

Other chain stores reported there was yet no visible effect of the strike on their deliveries. Managers indicated, however, that any such pinch would come without warning.

Milk deliveries remained normal according to a prominent local distributor who pointed out that Ulster county is virtually self-served in milk distribution. Some milk is trucked into Ulster from Greene county dairies and these shipments have been coming through uninterrupted.

Meanwhile the metropolitan situation although not acute was growing steadily worse and indications were its effects might be felt in this area within the next few days.

New York officials estimated that possibly 124,000 tons of perishables, raw materials, finished goods and commodities in countless categories were stalled for the fourth straight day.

The New York-New Jersey strike area constituted a road block of the main highways between New England and the manufacturing east and south, spreading effect of the stoppage up and down the entire seaboard.

Russians Reported Seeking Delay in Scientific Report

Andrei Gromyko Quoted as Saying He Has Not Had Enough Time for Study

New York, Sept. 7 (AP)—An authoritative non-Russian source said today that the Soviet delegation to the United Nations Security Council had asked for postponement of final action on a scientific report to the Atomic Energy Commission and also of the council's draft report to the General Assembly.

Soviet Delegate Andrei A. Gromyko was quoted by the source as saying he had not had time to study the council's digest, which was examined in a 24-hour secret council session yesterday.

The meeting adjourned with the suggestion that amendments should be offered within the next several days so the general report could be whipped into final form. It will contain the council's summation of the unsettled Russian and Spanish cases and the pending Soviet-Ukrainian complaint against Greece.

In an informal meeting of the scientific and technical committee of the Atomic Energy Commission at the U. N. Lake Success headquarters, the Russian member was reported to have asked for a stay until Monday on the final approval of its report.

Awaiting Final Word

Although the Russian member, Prof. S. F. Alexandrov, was reported to have raised no objection to the report drafted as the result of 18 meetings, the scientists have held, he was said to be waiting for final word from Moscow. A colleague with whom he was discussing the report, the presumably non-controversial questions was reported to have departed from Moscow in the last several days.

Council delegations and the U. N. secretariat were deeply concerned meantime, over the Russian demand for postponement until November 11 of the General Assembly meeting scheduled for September 25 in New York and which was called for that date by Secretary-General Trygve Lie in the face of Russian opposition in the past week.

The secretariat hoped that the meeting for which painstaking and irrevocable housing and other arrangements had been made, would go on at the insistence of Secretary of State James F. Byrnes upon his return Sunday to the Peace Conference.

Has Made Conditions

It was noted likewise that Soviet Foreign Minister Ernest Butenko put conditions on his acceptance of the postponement of the meeting. Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov said France and China in the past week had been offering the assembly the Peace Conference.

Council delegations were waiting for instructions from their home governments on the Russian complaint against Greece.

The Chinese case, which got a bare affirmative vote, was reported to have been resumed at 3 p. m., E.D.T., Monday and decided whether to seat Gen. Tark Jakova, Albanian minister of state without portfolio.

Meat Bills To Go Up 600-Million

Jump Results from Hike in Retail Prices That OPA Allows on Some Cuts

Packers to Help Most of the Increases Are Taken on Choice Pieces

By EDWIN B. HARRISON
Washington, Sept. 7 (AP)—American housewives face a $600,000,000 boost in their annual meat bills but O.P.A. officials said today most of the increase will fall on those who can afford it.

The $600,000,000 jump results from an average increase of three and three-quarter cents a pound in retail meat prices ordered by the agency when ceilings return to the butcher shops on Tuesday.

This is the difference, O.P.A. said, between average meat ceilings on June 30, when controls lapsed and the new higher prices, which will be below those of the last two months.

Price Administrator Porter flew to Chicago for a private conference yesterday at which he received assurances from major packers that they will help make the price increase work.

Prices Up on Prime Cuts

A big share of the beef, 42 percent of the pork, and a much smaller share of lamb and mutton will return to the same ceilings that prevailed last June. Most of the price increases were tacked onto the prime and choice cuts.

All O.P.A. men carefully avoided any attempts to say just how much the rollback will be on prices that have been charged during the period of no ceilings.

They explained that the pricing pattern in the million-odd retail shops is highly varied and in any event the housewife who does the buying will have all the answers when she goes marketing Tuesday.

O.P.A. leaders, who lost a battle with Secretary of Agriculture Anderson over returning all ceilings to June 30 levels, said they accepted Anderson's estimates of the rollback. He put them at about 30 percent on pork at the live stock level and a "substantial amount" on beef.

18 Cents Hike

Highest boost on the list is an 18-cent a pound rise in ready-to-eat sliced Canadian bacon. Increases of as much as 15 cents a pound were made on other special hams, lamb loin chops and other choice meats.

Choice and good grades of beef (AA and A) were hoisted from 8 to 10 cents a pound for the best steaks and roasts while ordinary bacon, stew meat, and other less expensive cuts were upped 4 and 5 cents.

No increase was made in the Action Is Brought To Determine How Farm Sale Stands

Harde Says Witthaus Agreed to Transfer Property; Gave Memorandum

The question of whether William R. Witthaus of the town of Gardiner agreed to sell his 40-acre farm to J. Bernard Harde for the sum of $4,700 in March of this year, is only one of the questions which Justice Roscoe V. Elsworth will have to determine in an action for summary judgment brought by Harde against the 75-year-old town of Gardiner farmer. The motion was heard Friday at special term. J. V. McCabe appeared for Harde, plaintiff in the action and Earl H. Houghtaling, Jr., appeared for defendant.

A motion was made by plaintiff for summary judgment and specific performance. It is alleged that in August 1945 plaintiff heard the defendant wanted to sell his farm and sought to buy it. The price asked was $6,500 and the buyer and seller did not come to terms. After several conversations, it was stated by the plaintiff the price was too high and negotiations were discontinued until this spring when plaintiff claims he visited the premises and there was an agreement to sell for $4,700 and a $100 deposit made. A memorandum of sale was given by the purchaser who declined to go to the office of Mr. Houghtaling in Walden to have a formal agreement drawn up, claiming the price was too high.

he was afraid the office would be closed and the 15-mile drive would be for naught. That was March 16 last. An agreement was made, plaintiff claims, to meet the following week and have a formal contract drawn up.

Wrote to Plaintiff

Before that date the attorney for defendant wrote plaintiff telling him the property would not be sold for the price and it is also claimed that defendant, Witthaus, believed that the $100 paid to him and the memorandum given the purchaser was not a deposit made to bind a contract but the memorandum given was a receipt for the $100 which was paid until the next meeting when an agreement and contract could be drawn up and signed. Mr. Witthaus contends that terms of the sale never were closed and that he had told the purchaser that he would sell only a portion of the farm for the $4,700 price and no agreement as to what portion was ever agreed upon on March 16.

Plaintiff claims that the agreement and the $100 paid on March 16 when the memorandum of sale was given was for the entire farm of 40 acres.

Defendant opposed the motion for summary judgment and specific performance of the contract, on the grounds that he never had agreed to any terms of sale and pleaded fraud on the part of plaintiff. He contends he thought he was simply giving a receipt for the $100 paid and that a contract and terms would be arranged at

$30,000 Negligence Action Brought in Girl's Death

Mothers Leaves 2 Babies With V.A. Pension Check of Ex-G.I. Husband

Philadelphia, Sept. 7 (AP)—Nineteen-year-old Mrs. Joyce E. Cawley today awaited a social agency's help in the solution of a problem which prompted her to plunk her ex-G.I. husband's $11.50 monthly pension check and her two baby daughters on the desk of a Veterans Administration office here with the angry declaration: "I can't feed these children on this."

The mother left squealing three-month-old Barbara Joan and Betty Ann, 14 months, on the desk of a social agency representative. McKitterick yesterday stalked out to police who took them to a shelter of the Society for the Protection of Children from Cruelty.

Shortly afterwards Mrs. Cawley went to the police and said she had given up the idea of abandoning her children to the V.A. She was told the S.P.C.C. officials would care for them for the night.

The mother added that she hadn't intended to leave the children—"I was so disgusted I didn't know what to do."

"When I got home I realized what a mistake I'd made. I love my babies but I just can't get along on the money we get from the state and the government. It only amounts to about $72.50 a month," she continued.

Louise Ada Sutton, 7, Electrocuted When Dog Stepped on Fallen Wire

Application for an examination before trial in the $30,000 negligence action brought by William E. Sutton, as administrator of the estate of his daughter, Louise Ada Sutton, 7, who was electrocuted on June 9, 1946, when she came into contact with a fallen wire of the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corporation in the town of Plattekill, was made to Justice Roscoe V. Elsworth at special term of Supreme Court Friday.

The application was made by George Rusk, counsel for plaintiff, and was opposed by Andrew J. Cook, who appeared for the defendant corporation. Certain of the requests were granted by the court.

Growing out of the death of the seven-year-old girl who was electrocuted when her dog, which she was leading on a chain, stepped on the fallen wire and was electrocuted, the action is noticed for trial in Supreme Court. Mr. Rusk sought by the examination before trial to establish what knowledge the company had as to the time of the falling of the wire, what was done following the incident and whether there were any switches, devices or installations which would show when and where the break took place. He also sought to have supplied any sketch or map of the section of the transmission line in the immediate vicinity to learn what switches or devices were there installed.

Plaintiff alleges that the wire broke at 11 o'clock on Saturday night and the girl was electrocuted at about noon the following day. Plaintiff seeks to ascertain

Goudy Is Honored By Big Exhibition Of 50-Year Career

MarlboroughTypeDesigner Is Given Entire Floor of South Gallery of Congress Library

The Library of Congress at Washington opened an exhibition in honor of Frederic W. Goudy of Marlborough, American type designer, who last year rounded out a half century of printing type design and typography. He is 86.

Included in the display, which, arranged in 14 double cases occupies the entire floor space of the South Gallery on the second floor, are more than 100 of his original type designs, drawings, matrices, type specimens, proofs and other records of Mr. Goudy's work.

They include selections from his collection of typographical materials and of books, ranging from pamphlets of high historic value to later special editions and other fine products of his own famous "Village Press" and other private presses designed by him or in which his types were used.

Most Comprehensive

The Goudy Collection, acquired by the Library of Congress in 1943, is the most comprehensive of its kind in existence, consisting of a library of thousands of books in the design and typography of which are represented his own and the best work of other designers to whose genius and skill is due the revival in this country of printing as a fine art.

Also included in the items from the collection selected for display are photographs of members of the Goudy family and of the "Village Press" in its beautiful woodland setting at "Doedene," Marlborough, where for years every process of book making from design to printing was carried out. Mr. Goudy cutting the matrices for his type, his wife, Bertha Goudy, until her death in 1935, working at the case and setting up books, and their son, Frederick T. Goudy, running the machines.

In Memory of Wife

To the memory of his wife, who was one of the most distinguished of American compositors and much of whose original work is included in the items from the collection selected for display, Mr. Goudy dedicated the 100th of his

Will Make Appeal via Councils

Spokesman Says Tieup Is 100 Per Cent and Effectiveness Is Seen Everywhere

2,500 Ships Idle

Picketing Will Extend to Tugboats With A.F.L. Crews

(By The Associated Press)

A union threat to call on all organized labor for an over-all nationwide general strike if the government moves "any of our ships, as it has threatened to do," was voiced today by a union official as the world's greatest maritime fleet lay landlocked behind a ring of striking, picketing A.F.L. seamen.

The threat was voiced by Paul Hall, port agent of the striking Seafarers' International Union (A.F.L.).

"If the government moves any of our ships as it has threatened to do," Hall said, "we will call on all organized labor to come out with us for an over-all national general strike. That means street car conductors, machinists and even the police."

Hall explained that an appeal for such a general strike would be made through various local central labor councils, should the government attempt to move ships.

He said the seamen's strike now was "100 per cent effective in all ports," and added "we are in fine shape and prepared to strike from here on in."

"We believe its effectiveness is beginning to tell and a complete tieup will win our demands," Hall said.

Pier Sheds Are Dark

Pier sheds were dark behind closed entrances and cargo booms were fixed tight as thousands of vessels and a half million men were idle in the greatest maritime strike in history.

This was the picture as the strike of members of the Sailors Union of the Pacific and the Seafarers' International Union entered its third day, and the second day of picketing.

Transoceanic passenger traffic was suspended; import and export of raw materials vital to the nation's mills and factories were halted; more than 250,000 tons of relief cargo for Europe and Asia were tied up in 125 U.N.R.R.A. ships.

Officers of the two unions claimed more than 2,500 ships lay in Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf ports without crews.

Both American and foreign vessels were hit by the strike—either directly by the striking seamen—seeking a reversal of a wage stabilization board ruling denying them the full wage increase won in recent negotiations—or by members of other unions who have honored the picket lines.

The chain of pickets was expected to be extended even further today—to all New York harbor tugboats manned by A.F.L. crews.

Officials of the S.U.P. said the picketing extension would halt all harbor activity in New York except for a few railway barge tugs. The tugboats were expected to cease operation by 4 p. m. (E.D.T.).

The small vessels normally bring in an estimated 80 per cent of New York city fuel and half of its food supplies.

During a tugboat strike last February, fuel oil and coal supplies dwindled to virtual exhaustion, leading Mayor William O'Dwyer to order the shutdown of the city's business and amusement activities, except for certain exempted enterprises directly concerned with maintaining life and health.

Have Towed Barges

Since the start of the maritime strike Thursday, the tugs have towed barges carrying foodstuffs and other commodities for the metropolitan area but have refused to do anything to help ships to enter or leave the harbor.

Max Kerenblatt, chairman of the S.U.P.-S.U.P. joint strike committee, said the action against the tugs would affect about 2,200 boats. He was unable to estimate the number of men involved.

Shipping men in New York called the walkout the costliest strike in the history of American shipping.

In Washington the War Department said the strike virtually had

Greeks Will Lodge Protest For Action Against Plane

Athens, Sept. 7 (AP)—Political circles said today the Greek government certainly would lodge a protest with Marshal Tito concerning a Greek military plane which the general staff and air ministry reported forced down in Yugoslavia yesterday by Yugoslav anti-aircraft fire.

Reports in Athens last night said crew members of the plane, which the general staff and air ministry announcement said was riddled with anti-aircraft fire, suffered no injuries, but were detained by Yugoslav authorities.

(In Belgrade, where U. S. Ambassador Richard C. Patterson conferred for 45 minutes yesterday with Marshal Tito concerning U. S. demands for indemnification for five Americans killed in a plane shot down over Yugoslav territory on August 19, the government stated only that the pilot had been interned.)

Last night's Greek announcement of the plane incident, which followed by a little more than two weeks the summoning home of the Yugoslav ambassador to Athens, said: "This morning one of our planes of the Salonika air base, while flying in the Axionopolis-Paikon mountain area and due to that face flying at a low altitude, flew over nearby Yugoslav territory. Having been shot by ack ack fire, it landed in Georgiev, not knowing it was the territory of a neighboring state.

The aircraft was not carrying a camera. There was no intention of a border crossing, and owing to the loss of bearings, the aircraft made a forced landing, the pilot being convinced he was over Greek territory. When the plane was overdue, two search planes were sent out above our territory. The Yugoslav military attaché here has been kept aware of all above."

(The Yugoslav announcement said that "for a long time our military authorities have noted military planes from Greece flying over our frontiers. It has been noted that the flying over our frontiers is purely of a military character."

It said a Greek military reconnaissance plane was "forced to land by our fighters," and gave the date of the incident as September 31.

Diplomatic observers regarded the incident as one more indication of deteriorating Greek relations in the Balkans.

London reported today an exchange telegraph dispatch from Athens said the Greek commander in Salonika had been ordered to meet the Yugoslav commander from Ghevgheli (Djevdjelijan), Yugoslavia, for a joint inquiry into the shooting down of a Greek plane near the Greek-Yugoslav border.

The dispatch said the pilot of the Greek plane was still being held by Yugoslav authorities.

Committee Promises Probe Of McKellar, Bilbo Primary

By FRANCIS J. KELLY
Washington, Sept. 7 (AP)—A spot check of the recent primary election campaigns which resulted in the renomination of Senators McKellar (D-Tenn.) and Bilbo (D-Miss.) was promised by the Senate Campaign Investigation Committee today as soon as it can recruit a staff.

The decision to investigate sworn complaints made by interested citizens was reached at a two-hour closed session of the committee late yesterday.

The complaints charge that McKellar and his supporters spent more money than the Tennessee law allows ($10,000), and that Bilbo advocated intimidation of Negro voters to keep them away from the polls.

Athens Mayor, His Aldermen Resign

Aftermath of August Unrest Finds City Without Heads

Athens, Tenn., Sept. 7 (AP)—The backwash from a flood of unrest following the August 1 riot in which war veterans supported their ballots with bullets left this city without a municipal government today.

Mayor Paul Walker and the Board of Aldermen addressed a letter "To whom it may concern" yesterday, filed a copy with City Recorder Lee Moses and quit, saying they feared for the safety of themselves and their families.

Their drastic action followed a nocturnal reign of terror against the aldermen which was climaxed when shots were fired from a night-prowling car into the wife of Alderman Hugh Riggs.

The mayor declared the city administration was in no way connected with the August riot, which involved only county and state elections.

At that time a group of ex-G.I.s, claiming election irregularities, besieged the McMinn county jail to which deputies appointed by the then dominant Democratic organization took the ballot boxes on election night.

After the flurry of shots and the dynamiting of the jail's front porch, the deputies surrendered, the county administration resigned and the veteran slate took over.

Says It's Too Deep

Mayor Walker said the situation which prompted his resignation and that of the aldermen is "too deep for me. I confess I don't know what it is all about."

Asked if the ex-servicemen were responsible for the continuing unrest, Walker replied: "I don't know. The situation is out of the hands of the veterans. In fact, they asked us not to resign, but we have to do something."

There is no longer any definite organization of the ex-servicemen who led the August 1 battle. Most of them, however, have associated

Conductor Soper To End Railroad Career Here Today

Will Finish 41 Years Duty When Train Arrives at West Shore Station From Oncontia

Conductor Daniel R. Soper of 120 Andrew street was scheduled today to make his last run on the Catskill Mountain Branch of the River Division, New York Central Lines, completing 41 years of service as a railroad man with the former Ulster & Delaware railroad and the New York Central Lines.

His last run as an active railroad man before he retired was to be made on Train 302 from Oncontia, arriving at the West Shore station at 4:40 o'clock this afternoon.

A group of railroad men and friends were expected to meet the train this afternoon to congratulate Conductor Soper on his long career as a railroad man. New York Central officials were to present Conductor Soper with a certificate of service.

Conductor Soper was born at Olive Branch on August 12, 1879, and entered the employ of the former Ulster & Delaware Railroad as an engine wiper on November 19, 1905.

On June 1, 1907, he was transferred to train service as a brakeman, a post he held until May 27, 1913, when he was promoted to conductor.

He has held that post continuously since 1913 serving both with the U. & D. railroad in that capacity, and with the New York Central lines when it took over the U. & D. in 1932.

During the nearly half century Conductor Soper has seen service as a railroad man he has made an enviable record for excellent and efficient service.

Top V.F.W. Posts Go To World War I Veterans

Boston, Sept. 7 (AP)—Delegates to the 47th national encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars began trickling out of Boston today after concluding a six-day session with an election that gave the three top posts to veterans of the first World War.

Louis E. Starr, Portland, Ore., attorney and an "old guard" infantryman, was elected vice commander by acclamation from senior vice commander to commander-in-chief, succeeding Joseph M. Stack who said he would return to his civilian post as chief of the Allegheny county, Pa., detective bureau.

Two other soldiers of 1918, Ray H. Brannaman of Denver, Colo., and Lvall T. Berge of Madison, Wis., were named to serve as senior vice commander and junior vice commander, respectively. The only posts which went to World War 2 veterans were won by Edward McAlonan, Bronx, N. Y., attorney and former navy lieutenant, who was named judge advocate general; and the Rev. Gerald M. Dougherty of Chicago, who was a chaplain for 39 months with the 45th Infantry Division, named chaplain.

Church Will Resume Its Regular Services

The Roundout Presbyterian and the Wurts Street Baptist Church which has been closed during the summer period reopens as usual on Sunday morning with sermon by the pastor, the Rev. Robert E. Osman. The Sunday school will also reopen tomorrow at the usual hour.

Tuesday afternoon the Woman's Missionary Society will meet with Mrs. John Bigler in her home in Connelly.

Admiral Stricken

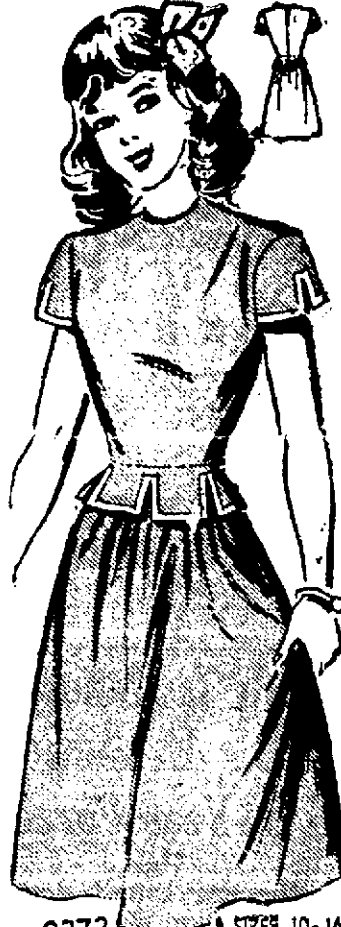

Valletta, Malta, Sept. 7 (AP)—Admiral Marc A. Mitscher, operated on for appendicitis yesterday at Malta's Royal Naval Hospital, passed a restless night but was resting somewhat easier this morning, hospital authorities said today. Mitscher, 59-year-old acting commander-in-chief of the U. S. Atlantic fleet, was seized while conferring with Admiral Sir Algernon Willis, British Mediterranean naval commander-in-chief.

Improvements Completed At Presbyterian Church

A new ceiling and painted interior, including the organ pipes, will meet the eyes of the congregation as it gathers again for worship at 11 o'clock tomorrow in the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street and Tremper avenue. This work was accomplished during the month of August while the pastor, the Rev. William J. McVey, was on vacation. In addition to the foregoing large scale improvements, two of the main lighting fixtures were moved forward over the platform to give better lighting for the choir, and additional outlets in the ceiling were installed, so that extra lighting fixtures of a more modern and harmonious type may be hung in the near future, according to tentative plans proposed by the Trustees Board, which initiated and carried out these important changes and improvements.

All activities in the church are being resumed tomorrow.

paralyzed shipment of American troops and supplies to Germany and Japan. But Harry Lundberg, head of the S.U.P., declared in San Francisco that the War Department statement was a "falsehood."

We have an ironclad rule in effect that no ships of the army or navy, either troopships or auxiliary vessels, are to be affected by the strike," he said in a telegram to the War Department. "For your information, we have cleared each day here with the proper authorities."

Last Wednesday, Joseph P. Ryan, president of the A.F.L. International Longshoremen's Association, and a member of the A.F.L. Maritime Trades Department which pledged to respect the seamen's picket lines, was asked if troops and relief cargoes would be exempt during the strike.

No Exemptions "There'll be no exemptions this time," he replied. The A.F.L. Seamen, nearly 100,000 in number, have full support of an estimated 400,000 other waterfront workers and the rival C.I.O. National Maritime Union.

President Truman has declined to intervene in the strike and has turned the case over to Secretary of Labor Schwelb. No statement had come from the W.S.B. since its offer to "consider rehearing" the case at a meeting next Tuesday.

Strike leaders reiterated their determination to stay out until the W.S.B. rescinded a ruling which pared down to $17.50 a month an employer-approved pay hike of $22.50 on the west coast and $27.50 in the east. The present pay scale is $14.5 a month.

Supreme Court Has Busy Special Term Here on Friday

Justices Elsworth, Schirick Preside at Sessions in Ulster County Court House

Friday the first regular Special term of Supreme Court was held since the summer recess of the courts with Justice Roscoe V. Elsworth presiding. However the justice calendar was so large that Justice Elsworth was engaged until late in the afternoon with those matters while Justice Harry E. Schirick heard matrimonial matters at his chambers during the morning. The term was one of the busiest which has been held in Ulster county in some time.

On the motion calendar, were over 20 matters to be heard and there were 18 matrimonial matters noticed on the calendar and while not all of them were heard, there were several additions to that calendar on the call.

In addition to contested motions there were numerous ex parte matters disposed of.

Among the matters heard was the matter of the final accounting of Pauline S. Carter, as administratrix of Frank Carter, as committee of the person and estate of Mary Long, Walter H. Gill for petitioner. Order signed.

Emma Mack vs. Nat Becker. Koopman and Koopman for plaintiff and Joseph Avis for defendant. Motion for bill of particulars.

Mary A. Leggett vs. James L. Nelligan and Edison J. Jenkins and others, motion to dismiss amended complaint. E. S. Knox for plaintiff and James L. Nelligan for defendant. Arthur Ewig argued motion for defendant. This was an action by plaintiff to dismiss a complaint and for judgment on pleadings in an action for specific performance for transfer of real property in Albany. An action was originally brought to compel final payment for premises bought from the late Edward and Belle Schwartz. The purchaser was engaged in the floor finishing and scraping business. Edward Schwartz was considered a "peculiar" person, according to counsel, and murdered his two sisters and then killed himself. Plaintiff has been in possession of the property and has improved it and at the present time there is allegedly only about $100 due on the purchase price. It is contended that the original contract of purchase never was altered but that Schwartz suggested plaintiff to do work on properties he owned and apply the money on the purchase price. This was done. Plaintiff was given a week to submit additional affidavits and defendant was given time to reply. Decision reserved.

Philip Rosenberg vs. Ada and Herman Kline, motion to bring in additional defendants. P. G. Rosenberg for plaintiff and Leon J. Tepper for defendant. Rosenberg, Hudson attorney, seeks to recover commission for sale of property in Hudson and also for work, labor and services. The application before Justice Elsworth was to bring in the purchaser of the property. Counsel said Rosenberg represented the buyer at the sale and defendant contends that at the time it was stated there was to be no commission paid. The application is to bring in Max Meyers. Case submitted.

An application for order of preclusion brought by Dorothy Brady against Spector Motor Service, Inc., was submitted. John DeWitt for plaintiff and David Tepp for defendant.

A motion to vacate order for examination before trial in the action brought by James P. Roach, administrator, and others against Spector Motor Service, Inc., and Woodstock-Kingston Bus Corporation and others, was submitted. A. J. Cook appeared for plaintiff Roach and Davis Tepp for Spector Motors.

In No. 10, Everett and Edna Rutishauser against Andy D. Demer and Andrew Demer against Everett W. Rutishauser and another. A motion for judgment on pleadings, sought to change the place of trial to Ulster county and his motion was granted. Cases were consolidated.

Mary Elizabeth Clare, plaintiff, against John H. Clace, a motion to modify judgment, was submitted. A. J. Cook for plaintiff and C. J. Flanagan for defendant.

In No. 12, Edna Sagendorf against Rodney E. Sagendorf, a motion to permit service of an amended complaint, there was considerable argument and some novel questions of law involved. Back in 1931 plaintiff started an action for divorce against her husband. She had a foreign lawyer at the time. The case never was tried and since then there has been a series of attorneys in the case, among them the late Grant M. Brimmer of Saugerties. In the intervening years the complaint has been lost or mislaid and the case was noticed for trial Friday in Dutchess county by a supreme court justice who directed that if the case, which had lapsed prosecution over the many years, was not tried at that time the complaint would be dismissed. Counsel for defendant asked how a case in which there were no pleadings could be tried and Arthur Ewig, appearing for the plaintiff, asked that he be permitted to file pleadings and have a new date set for the trial. There was considerable argument as to the law and the lack of law in this situation. During the argument it appeared that an order had been made directing payment of $100 and $10 temporary alimony years ago and that is the only instrument which is on file. Mr. Ewig said the defendant was $4,000 in arrears on his alimony and defendant charged lack of prosecution and stated alimony over all the period of years during which the case has been pending. Plaintiff was not "temperamentally" alimony. Mr. Ewig said the defendant had gone to Michigan to work in 1941 and was about to start an action for divorce there against his wife who is the plaintiff in the existing action here. Decision was reserved and papers taken.

People of State of New York vs. Louis Telowitz and others, action for injunction to close a camp in Sullivan county. Earl W. Murray, assistant attorney general for motion. Order granted.

Margaret A. Keyser vs. Walter J. Keyser, application for temporary alimony and counsel fees. Abraham Streifer for plaintiff. $10 weekly and $150 counsel fees submitted.

Carrie Mark against Mountain View Coach Lines, motion for examination before trial. A. J. Cook and Abraham Streifer for plaintiff and David Tepp for defendant. Submitted.

The Fight for Cheap Silver

By WILLIAM E. LOWELL

Washington—Almost overlooked in the rush to pass O.P.A. legislation at the close of the recent Congress was an act introduced in an effort to make government stocks of silver available for purchase by industry.

The silver legislation was a House-Senate compromise and has not resulted in any more than a trickle of silver into industry. Industry is buying most of its silver from foreign sources.

Congressmen from the industrial states were pleading for use of the government's unmonetized silver to prevent shutdowns in factories.

Compromise Fails to Work Legislation designed to authorize sale by the Treasury was stalled in the Senate on a disagreement over price. The miners wanted $1.29 an ounce. Industry was willing to pay only 71.11 cents.

The Senate insisted that the producer should receive the same price that the government would receive when it sold silver to industry. Shortly before adjournment an agreement was reached and Congress authorized purchase and sale at 90.5 cents an ounce. The bill was signed by the President on July 31.

But during the first month since the bill became law, only one sale was made by the Treasury—a total of 3,400 ounces out of the approximately 225,000,000 in storage.

Hundreds, if not thousands, of American businesses were being stifled, Rep. McCormack of Massachusetts, Democratic floor leader, told the House during debate on the authorization bill.

At that time industry estimated its need at about 125,000,000 ounces for 1946. No foreign silver was available at 71.11 cents, then the price ceiling. Domestic production for 1945 was only about 67,000,000 ounces and there was little likelihood the output would be larger this year.

Since the price-fixing bill was passed, O.P.A. has raised its ceiling to 90.5 cents an ounce, or the Treasury selling price, whichever is higher.

But the commercial market can buy foreign silver at 90 1/2 cents and sell at 90 1/4, and indications are that the Treasury stock will increase as domestic silver becomes available.

The bill limited the Treasury's purchase of silver mined after July 1, 1946, to protect the government against speculators.

The issue, as always in the case of silver, stirred up a bitter congressional fight. When the Senate pigeonholed the original House bill, the House wrote its provisions into the Treasury-Postoffice appropriations bill.

This move, however, accomplished nothing but a delay in authorization of funds for the two departments.

Many Industries Need It Manufacturers of silverware spearheaded the publicity campaign in behalf of the bill, but a need for the metal was felt by manufacturers of photo supplies, of whom silver and silver dollars to obtain the metal at a cost of $1.29 an ounce.

Other users reported in distress were manufacturers of dental supplies, electrical devices, brazing alloys, dental and pharmaceutical products, engine bearings, jewelry and military insignia.

The Senate held its ground. Silver producers, the Banking and Currency Committee reported he had no price increase since 1939.

Costs meanwhile had mounted. The 90.5-cent price, the committee reported, represented a compromise between the 71.11 proposed by the House and the $1.29 asked by the producers. The House finally accepted the compromise.

Late Bulletins

Paris, Sept. 7 (AP)—Alcide de Gasperi, Italian premier, and Dr. Karl Gruber, Austrian foreign minister, announced today that they had signed an agreement settling the differences between their two countries over the south Tyrol.

A conference commission of the peace conference, meanwhile, deferred action on a proposal for a court of human rights. Samuel Riebler, representing the United States, said that the court plan should be considered by the United Nations instead of by the peace conference.

Colby Brands Russia As Enemy of America

Jamestown, N. Y., Sept. 7 (AP)—Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state under Woodrow Wilson, declares that Russia "insists on treating us as enemies" and "is straining with every breath to compass our overthrow."

The Russians' "degraded government refuses to concede that we are friends," Colby told the 20th annual convention of the Western New York Federation of Bar Associations last night.

The 77-year-old resident of Jamestown headed the state department from March 22, 1920, to March 4, 1921.

"And so we square off," Colby said, "against a nation we have saved from destruction and whose people we have sought to rescue from the oppression of a regime without precedent in history for its systematized and ruthless despotism."

Colby's degraded government refuses to concede that we are friends.  I hope our minds are at last opening to the indisputable fact that the present day Russia is our enemy and is straining with every breath to compass our overthrow."

Two Out of 13 in B-29 Known Dead in Jump

Tokyo, Sept. 7 (AP)—Thirteen crewmen bailed out of a crashing Superfortress off Nagasaki Friday and at least two of them lost their lives, the Pacific Air Command at Tokyo announced today.

Ten of the men were rescued and the bodies of two others were recovered. A search for the thirteenth was being conducted by land and air over a radius of 200 miles.

An emergency rescue team pulled the men from the water and took them to Fukuoka. It was not known here whether any of the survivors were injured seriously.

The B-29 was assigned to the First Air Division based on Okinawa and was on a routine training flight.

Tass Omits Specific Parts of Byrnes Speech Moscow, Sept. 7 (AP)—A 200-word Tass account of Secretary of State Byrnes' Stuttgart speech was printed today in Izvestia and other Soviet newspapers.

The account said Byrnes had suggested changes in the Potsdam agreement to bring about economic unity in Germany and "put forward the American viewpoint of the administration of Germany," without specifically telling what Byrnes proposed.

Tass also noted Byrnes' support of the transfer of Koenigsberg (Kaliningrad) to Russia, and said he "further developed the American viewpoint on other territorial questions touching on Germany and her neighbors."

The account omitted Byrnes' specific statements regarding the Ruhr, Rhineland, Saar and the Oder river frontier.

Santoro Reports Auto Mishap at Port Ewen

Rocco Santoro, 48, of Port Richmond, N. Y., reported to the sheriff's office last night that his car struck and slightly injured August Garibaldi, 51, of West Park, in an accident about 8:15 o'clock opposite Card's drug store in Port Ewen.

Santoro said Garibaldi was emerging from behind another car coming from the opposite direction, when Santoro pulled to the left side of the man to avoid hitting him. The right front fender, however, sideswiped Garibaldi, inflicting a slight bruise on his left leg.

No arrest was made.

Will Protest to Chiang

Peiping, Sept. 7 (AP)—Informed sources at Sino-American trade headquarters today said U. S. officials could be expected to protest strongly to Chiang Kai-Shek over the bombing of a truck team near Chengtchi and the reported wounding of three Americans. The Chinese government's air force, "all along has been a thorn in the side" of executive headquarters, the source said.

British Arrest Grohe

Herford, Germany, Sept. 7 (AP)—British headquarters announced today the arrest of J. Joseph Grohe, former Reich commissioner for northern France and Belgium, and "the main person responsible for blowing up all five Rhine bridges at Cologne."

Otto Rembles Adolf The "Hitler" recently reported seen in Posadas, capital of the Argentine national territory of Misiones, near the Brazilian border, turned out to be Otto Weizer, who bears an extraordinary resemblance to the late Adolf. He was under medical attention in the Posadas hospital and it took him 24 hours to prove his real identity. Like the Fuehrer, he was born in Braunau on the Inn, and is almost exactly the same age.

Home Accidents About 33,500 persons were killed in the home or on home premises in the United States in 1945—an increase of three per cent over 1944.

Local Death Record

Funeral services for Charles J. Michaud of 53 Clinton avenue died Tuesday, were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Kukuk Memorial Funeral Home, 167 Tremper avenue. The Rev. William R. Peckham, pastor of the Clinton Avenue Methodist Church officiated. Burial took place in the Mt. Marion Cemetery.

Joseph H. Hait, active in Middle town affairs, municipal and business affairs since 1904, died Wednesday aged 61 years. He was chairman of the C. C. Planted Housing Committee. Mr. Hait was born in Ulster county September 29, 1884, son of Joseph L. and Josephine Hasbrouck Hait. He is survived by his wife, Nellie A. Arnoys Hait; a daughter, Dora, and a sister, Mrs. Kenneth M. McElman, of New York.

Mrs. Annie Pierce, wife of George Pierce, died at her home, 85 Stephan street, early this morning, following lengthy illness. Born in Nottingham, England, she had been a resident of Kingston for 42 years and was highly regarded by a large number of friends. Besides her husband she is survived by two daughters, Frances A. and Lillian M. at home. Funeral services will be held at the late home, 85 Stephan street, Tuesday at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited. Burial will be in the family plot in Wilkys Cemetery.

The funeral of Stephen Milovich who died suddenly on Tuesday was held from his late home, 7 South Wilbur avenue, this morning at 9:30 o'clock a high Mass of requiem was celebrated at the Church of the Holy Name by the Rev. Joseph D. Gorman. The responses to the Mass were chanted by Miss Patricia Keefe, while James Sweeney acted as organist. During the time the body rested at the family home a continuous flow of friends, neighbors and acquaintances called to pay tribute of respect to one who was held in high esteem by all who knew him. Thursday evening the entire employ of the Callanan Road Improvement Co. filed by the bier out of respect to a fellow workman. Friday night a large delegation of the Holy Name Society led by their spiritual director, Father Gorman, assembled at the home and recited the holy Rosary. Floral pieces completely filled the room, while spiritual bouquets in the form of Mass cards were received in large numbers. Casket bearers were John J. McManus, Edward J. Ryan, Matthew J. Jordan, George M. Cragin, George McKelvie and Delbert J. Sapp. Burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery, where Father Gorman pronounced the final absolution.

Stornoway Locks Doors

People in Stornoway, on Lewis Island, Scotland, are sleeping in kind locked doors for the first time in their lives. No longer is it a land of absolute honesty. The public is uneasy because a man was sentenced to 60 days for flitting through an iron bar and breaking into a store. "We don't want a crime wave touching the shores of this hitherto clean and crimeless island," says their spokesman.

All Ulster Will Dance

Yank and British soldiers stationed in Northern Ireland in wartime are credited with putting dancing "on the map" in the six northern Counties. Belfast servers say. Every remote village in Ulster now has its dance hall and the pastime, not long frowned upon by older people, has become a part of village social life. It is said that dancing at the cross-roads may be revived.

War Revives Chess

There has been an astounding revival of chess-playing on this Continent, Paris reports, and it is attributed to the war. Similar revivals happened after the Boer war and World War 1—principally because the game is played so much by soldiers. Men in service who never played the game once or two of their companions engrossed over a chess board and soon become exponents of the game themselves.

DIED

Flashes of Life

Sketched in Brief

Backlog

Hayward, Calif., Sept. 7 (AP)—City Councilman Jack Holland, who has been making loud demands for better law enforcement by Hayward policemen, was given a ticket by Policeman Gerald Cost for making a U-turn.

Fined $3 by Judge Jacob Hunter, Holland paid off with the remark, "we asked for law enforcement and this is evidence that we are getting it."

Reluctant

Tulsa, Okla., Sept. 7 (AP)—Sheriff Garland Marrs reluctantly complied with a court order to return a bottle of rum taken from a Tulsan in a liquor raid—but not before the sheriff looked long and well into a law book.

The defendant, on trial on a charge of liquor possession in dry Oklahoma, took the stand in his own defense and testified the rum was for his personal use. Oklahomans are entitled to possess one gallon for personal consumption.

Big Hearted

Dallas, Tex., Sept. 7 (AP)—On June 13, 1944, E. H. Peach, of Dallas reported his bicycle stolen. Yesterday, officers found it—and Peach gave it to the nine-year-old boy who had it.

Accompanied by his parents, the lad brought it to the police station for registration. They explained that they had bought it from a man for $20.

"He was so proud of it," he explained, "I couldn't disappoint him."

Kissing Game

Cissna Park, Ill., Sept. 7 (AP)—John Bishop, 93, who says "acting like a young feller" in a kissing game when he was 70 nearly cost his life, today joined his 89 year old wife, Carrie May, in observing their 70th wedding anniversary.

A justice of the peace for 40 years, Bishop said he broke his hip 35 years ago "when I slipped and fell while I was running around chairs at a party, playing a kissing game."

Dog Gone, Too

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 7 (AP)—"Spot" is missing but Mrs. C. E. Hobbs told police it would do no good to whistle for him.

She explained that when her pet dog "Spot," a setter, died several months ago she had a wooden replica made from a colored photograph of the dog.

Last night, she said some one stole the replica.

G.I.'s Find Loopholes To Marry Frauleins

Frankfurt, Germany, Sept. 7 (AP)—Enterprising G.I.'s keep United States military officials busy plugging loop-holes they discover in the army's ban on their marriage to German frauleins.

The army newspaper, Stars and Stripes, reported this new example today:

A few months ago three ingenious G.I.'s dusted off a 33-year-old German law which permitted a German with opportunity of emigration to be declared stateless, thus renouncing German citizenship.

The soldiers—unidentified—got their frauleins declared stateless then married them the day they were discharged from the army and before signing War Department contracts, thus evading military punishment.

A flood of applications from "two or three hundred" other German girls willing to renounce their citizenship to marry Americans followed.

But they were too late, military government had plugged that loop-hole by suspending the 1913 German law.

Officials now are wondering what lovelocks G.I.'s will try next.

The word greenhorn originally was applied to a deer or other animal with newly grown horns.

Russians May Find Stuttgart Speech To Their Liking

London, Sept. 7 (AP)—The influential Times suggested editorially today that Russia may find much to her liking in the proposals made by Secretary of State James F. Byrnes at Stuttgart yesterday.

"As for Russia," the Times commented, "there is much in Byrnes' proposals which she might welcome. She was first to call for central German government; she has laid the greatest stress on German unity and the importance of retaining the Ruhr and the Rhineland as part of Germany."

"She would be reassured by Byrnes' expressed determination to carry out the reparations plan as agreed on at Potsdam."

London's morning papers devoted most of their scanty editorial space to praise of the speech, with the Laborite Daily Herald viewing it as "a bid to break the deadlock between the occupying powers and by its forthrightness to enforce action."

The Liberal News Chronicle and the Yorkshire Post took a dim view of the German's ability to govern themselves, as suggested by the secretary, but the Post endorsed the "underlying principle" of the speech.

The conservative Daily Mail termed the speech "a breath of fresh air."

ROSENDALE

Rosendale, Sept. 6—Earl Mack, master, presided at the bi-monthly meeting of the Grange. Henry Mollenhauer was delighted to report, as chairman of the Fair committee, that Rosendale Grange had won a blue ribbon for their booth at the Ulster County Fair.

The literary hour was in charge of Mrs. C. Kraemer. It consisted of singing by the Grange, a poem by Mrs. Neal Hotelling, roll-call of favorite songs—the songs sung by the Grange members, poem by Mrs. C. Kraemer, flower guessing game, presentation of blue ribbon, a reading by Mrs. C. Kraemer, a short address on the tomato blight and other seasonal farm topics.

At the next meeting of the Grange there will be an auction sale at the regular lecture hour. Members are asked to bring or send some articles to be sold.

Friends of Mrs. Henry Mollenhauer will be glad to learn that she is improving at Vassar Hospital, Poughkeepsie.

Capt. Robertson Is Acquitted of Charges

Bad Nauheim, Germany, Sept. 7 (AP)—Capt. Joseph A. Robertson of Toledo, Ohio, was acquitted by a military court today of charges that he authorized and permitted cruelty to American soldier prisoners in the U. S. Army's Lichfield, England, guardhouse.

Robertson, former commander of a guard company at Lichfield, was the last of six officers and 10 enlisted guards to be tried in connection with mistreatment of prisoners there during the last year of the war.

His acquittal left the final score on the trials: Nine enlisted guards and four officers convicted, one enlisted guard and two officers acquitted.

Expect to Sign For Meters Soon

Payment After Trial Will Be on 50-50 Basis for $52,000 Price

It is expected that the contract with the Dual Parking Meter Co. of Canton, Ohio, for the installation of 743 parking meters in the business districts of Kingston, will be signed some time next week.

The ordinance authorizing the installation of the meters was signed yesterday by Mayor W. F. Edelmuth.

With the signing of the contract by the mayor, Corporation Counsel Arthur B. Ewig and City Clerk Raymond McAndrew, there will be no outlay of money on the part of the city to pay for the meters. Under the provisions of the contract during the first six months trial period, the city retains 50 per cent and the company 50 per cent of the revenue derived from the meters.

Then, if the city decides to continue the use of the meters, the payment for them is continued under the 50-50 percent basis until the contract price of approximately $52,000 is attained.

In case the city at the expiration of the trial period decides it does not care to purchase the meters the company removes them without charge to the city.

In listing the meter zones established by the ordinance two zones were omitted. They are Hurley avenue, from Taylor street to Washington avenue, and Albany avenue, from Clinton avenue to Broadway.

Presbyterian Mission Conference Wednesday

The annual Mission Coaching Conference, sponsored jointly by the Presbytery and Presbyterian Society of North River, will be held in the Pleasant Valley Church on Wednesday, September 11, from 3 to 9:30 p. m. It will feature the following outstanding leaders and speakers:

Miss Ruth Ure, missionary to India from 1925 to 1943, now serving on the Board of Foreign Missions as secretary for adult literacy, Christian literature and home and family life. She was a delegate in 1938 to the first all-India adult education conference at Delhi, and served for some years on the executive committee of the Indian Adult Education Association. She also served as secretary of the literacy campaign in the Punjab. Miss Ure serves on various committees of the Foreign Missions Conference and is a member of the administrative committee of the World's Sunday School Association.

Mrs. Mervyn Chappel, a recognized leader in women's work and a former missionary to Cuba.

The Rev. Dr. Jesse B. Barber, dean of the Theological Seminary of Lincoln University, Oxford, Pa., since 1943, prior to which he was 17 years pastor of the Leonard Street Presbyterian Church, Chattanooga. He has been influential in shaping policies for the development of Negro life in all areas in which the Presbyterian Church carries responsibilities.

The program will begin with the presentation of the mission themes for the year, led by Miss Ure. This will be followed by a discussion of "The Christian and Race," led by Dr. Barber and Miss Chappel. Dinner will be served at 6:30. The evening program at 7:30 will be a general meeting and discussion period on the theme, "The Christian Confronts the Issues of Today," with Miss Ure and Dr. Barber leading.

Delegates from the First and Second Presbyterian Churches of Kingston will attend the conference.

themselves with the newly formed good government league. The league president, L. H. Dooley, said the organization would not interest itself in the situation since the group was concerned primarily with principles and not with candidates.

Shortly after the August 1 disturbance, both Walker and Riggs were asked to resign by the voters. Walker retorted he would not resign under pressure. Riggs also chose to remain in office. Both were accused by the voters of allegiance to the United Democratic machine headed by State Senator Paul Cantrell.

Walker said the city recorder had been asked to remain as head of the government to run the police and fire departments. Athens City Attorney H. M. Chandler said the city charter made no provision for a special election and that apparently no action could not be filed until the charter was amended by the next session of the state legislature in January.

Martin Cashin Still Enjoying Good Health

In an item which appeared in The Freeman recently stating that County Judge John M. Cashin would be at the throttle of the 40 & 8 locomotive on its first run, it was stated that he was the son of "the late" Martin J. Cashin who for years was a locomotive engineer. "Marty" Cashin was an engineer for many years on both the West Shore and the Wallkill Valley Lines and he was not "late" when he pulled his train into a station on the lines and he is not "the late" Martin J. Cashin now.

Mr. Cashin is now retired and he is enjoying excellent health and still enjoys the "ride" of a locomotive throttle in his hand even though he is not actively running on the road.

the next meeting. Mr. Houghtaling told Justice Ellsworth that the action was being defended on the theory of fraud for he felt that the plaintiff had taken advantage of his client in a moment of weakness and had procured the memorandum of sale at that time. Later when Mr. Witthaus discussed the matter with his son and other members of the family he decided not to sell and notified his attorney to that effect. The letter was written to plaintiff telling him Mr. Witthaus did not intend to sell. At the time Mr. Witthaus believed no contract was in existence to sell and believed that was to be discussed on March 23, 1946 when the second meeting was to be held. That meeting was not held.

Justice Ellsworth took papers and reserved decision.

what was done in the meantime to shut off the power on the line.

On Saturday night, June 8, a very severe storm passed over this locality and many wires were blown down or broke by the storm.

On Sunday about noon the child, who made her home with her grandmother, Mrs. Eva Sutton of the town of Plattkill, took her dog on a chain and started down a patch toward where a group of men were standing some distance away on the Frank Lento property discussing the storm and the break in the wire.

As the girl came to the spot it is believed her dog stepped on the live wire and the current passed through the chain to the girl and she was fatally injured. The accident took place on the Lento property on the Ardonia-Plattkill road and Augustus Baxter, who was nearby, procured a rake and pulled the wire from the girl's body but she was dead.

Plaintiff in the $30,000 lawsuit alleges that the accident took place some 13 hours after the wire broke and brings an action for negligence.

Certain of the requests for examination before trial were consented to by counsel for the corporation and such information will be supplied if possible, Mr. Cook said.

Lutheran Area Meeting Here Monday Evening

Sunday school workers of the United Lutheran Synod of New York from this area of its Eastern Conference will lay plans for a sustained enrollment drive, in a meeting Monday at 8 p. m. in Redeemer Evangelical Lutheran Church, Kingston. The program will be explained by the Rev. William S. Avery, field secretary for the Parish and Church School Board of the United Lutheran Church in America.

Calling it an "enlistment campaign," Secretary Avery asks for the immediate goal of an eight per cent increase within a year, with a long range aim of a million pupils in the Sunday schools of the United Lutheran Church in America by 1950.

The secretary of the Synod, the Rev. Paul C. White, Ph. D., will preside over the rally. Dr. White is an outstanding educator in this field and is also religious secretary of education for the Synod.

There are 27,867,000 telephones in the United States.

KEEP THIS UP!

Save Your FATS!

One pound of used fat is enough to make approximately one large box of packaged laundry soap, or 6 bars of laundry soap, or 5 bars of toilet soap.

Your used fats are still needed to help ease the soap shortage. The supply of fats allocated to industry to make soaps and other peacetime goods is still far below minimum requirements. Any slackening in your saving of used fats means the supply will be shorter and there may be even less soap available. So keep on saving every drop of used fat and help return soap and other goods to your dealer's shelves. Save in metal container.

This is a big order, especially since the Wagner Act works against the independent union and even many a labor board member was formerly a C.I.O. employee or subject and may be expected to side any independent union out of the "company inspired" union.

But veterans have fought tough battles before; and one of the biggest contributions they could make "the peace" would be to settle our industrial war and settle with a brand of a unionism acceptable to this intelligent, comparatively industrious America where there is no slave proletariat.

Plasterer's unions are said to be holding up the entire housing program in some cities with this dog-in-the-manger policy.

3. Holding down production. This is in line with Karl Mark's idea of cutting everybody down to the size of your average as fast and smooth as brick layer as the other guy's brick wouldn't make any more money than he or show yourself a better man and thereby get a better job, if some union inspector came along and threatened to get you thrown out unless you set down and smoked twenty minutes out of every hour.

4. Force and coercion (the strike) to make the boss come to your terms. Nowhere else on the American scene can you get legal support for such extortion. Even the unions which repudiate Marxism as their goal resort to this Marxist method.

Y.W. Completes Its Plans for $10,000 Drive in Kingston

The finance committee of the Y.W.C.A. met at the building last night to complete the details for the Y.W.C.A. drive to be held from September 18 to 30. Mrs. Frederic Holcomb, chairman of the drive, announced that this year the committee has set the goal at $10,000, pointing out that the additional three thousands dollars is essential if rising costs are to be met and if city program and camping facilities are to be expanded to meet the needs of the community.

The campaign, as last year's, will be a house to house canvass of the community for the support of the work of the Y.W.C.A. The opening campaign dinner will be held Wednesday evening, September 18, at 6 p. m.

Members of the finance committee include: Mrs. Frederic W. Holcomb, chairman; Miss Frances Ostrum, Mrs. Theresa Culver, Mrs. A. Noble Graham, Mrs. N. Levan Haver, Mrs. William C. Kingman, Mrs. Edward Rick, Mrs. Alva Staples, and ex officio, Mrs. Herbert Fister and Miss Sadie M. Gregory.

Largest Enrollment Since 1939 at New Paltz
When Freshman Week opens the fall term at New Paltz State Teachers College on September 13, the largest student body at the college since 1939 will begin arriving. According to Miss Ailsa Reid, registrar, about 540 students are expected, of whom an estimated 240 will be freshmen and other new entrants. Sixty veterans of World War II, who have been attending the college under the G. I. Bill of Rights, are scheduled to return and among the new students will be 40 additional veterans. Registration will take place on September 16 and 17. Classes will begin on September 18.

Housing facilities in New Paltz are not adequate for the number of students expected, and it has been necessary to convert the gymnasium and locker rooms of the elementary school annex into temporary quarters for about 80 co-eds.

Lapo-Carrington Nuptials in Waterbury
Miss Ann Martha Carrington of Waterbury, Conn., daughter of Ralph W. Carrington, principal of the Bunker Hill School at Waterbury, and Mrs. Carrington, was married to Richard Byrd Lapo, pharmacist's mate third class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald J. Lapo of Woodstock Saturday, August 31. The ceremony was performed in St. John's Episcopal Church, Waterbury.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown made with white satin bodice, sweetheart neckline, three-quarter sleeves and skirt of net. Her tulle veil was attached to a headdress fashioned of lace from her mother's wedding gown and she carried a prayer book with gardenias and streamers of baby's breath and sweet peas.

The maid of honor, Miss Geneva Dudley of Cumberland, O., wore a pastel pink gown similar to the bride's and carried an old-fashioned nosegay. The bride's mother wore a light blue ensemble and corsage of talisman roses. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua gown with black sequin trimmed hat and corsage of talisman roses.

Stewart Stoves of New Haven, Conn., was best man. Ushers were Ralph W. Carrington, 2nd, and Hiram D. Carrington, Jr., cousins of the bride.

A reception was held in the ballroom of the Elton Hotel for 40 guests.

The bride was discharged from the W.A.V.E.S. August 21 with the rating of pharmacist's mate second class. She served as a chaplain's assistant and before enlistment had attended Farham College. Mr. Lapo, graduate of Kingston High School, attended Drew Seminary before enlisting. The couple are spending their honeymoon in Woodstock.

High School News

Correspondent Is Speaker

In the first formal assemblies of the year in the high school auditorium Kurt Singer, noted war correspondent, author, lecturer, and one of the foremost reporters of European underground activities during World War 2, gave students a first-hand account of how Allied undercover agents worked.

Mr. Singer cited particularly the work of partisans in Denmark and told how the Danes reacted to German occupation.

One of the more humorous incidents of which Mr. Singer told was that of a Danish editor who gave a too-factual account of an American raid upon a Nazi ammunition factory within German held territory. When the newspaper appeared the editor said American bombers had done a great deal of damage. German authorities who saw the newspaper story became furious and demanded a retraction of the statements. The only damage, the Nazis insisted, was that one cow was killed. The Danish editor in his underground communique to Great Britain announced the death of the "cow" and added, "The cow burned for four days."

And When Spring Came
At one time a group of Danish teachers, who refused to teach from German textbooks, were arrested and sent as slave laborers to the most northern point in Europe, Mr. Singer said. Upon their arrival they were put at work helping to build German fortifications. The work was begun in winter and the teachers were assigned to masonry construction. They decided to put more water with the cement mixture than specified. The natural result was that during the bitter weather the mortar held, but when spring thaw came the fortifications thawed also and gradually fell apart. The loss of time to the Germans was particularly disturbing, Mr. Singer related.

Mr. Singer told of the heroism of Allied paratroopers who, when opportunities presented, would drop behind enemy lines to carry chocolate, magazines and other luxuries to underground forces in Europe.

At the conclusion of his appearance before the A and B assemblies Mr. Singer held a question and answer period and awarded two autographed copies of one of his books, "Spies and Traitors of World War 2," for the best questions submitted. Nancy Jane Keyes of Kingston, a senior, won the book for A assembly, while the copy for B assembly went to Richard Gruver, of Hurley, a sophomore.

Band Tryouts Held
Anthony Messina, director of the Kingston High School band, held tryouts for positions Thursday and Friday afternoons.

Mr. Messina said the first rehearsal would be held Monday afternoon at Room 101, Vocational Building, and that the unit would play at the Haverstraw-Kingston football game September 20. Mr. Messina said the band hopes to play at every game this season.

National Honor Society
Faculty Adviser Miles Pollock said there will be a meeting soon of Manning Chapter of the National Honor Society to elect officers. This club, one of the most important in K.H.S., is composed of students who meet the four main requirements of scholarship, leadership, character and service. Members are proposed by students already in the society, approved by the faculty and inducted in a semi-annual tapping ceremony. Only end-juniors and seniors who meet the requirements are eligible.

Chairman of Manning Chapter Is Elmer Havens.

Leaders' Club Meets
Girls of the Leaders' Club met Thursday afternoon in the gymnasium. These young ladies are the ones who help Mrs. Jeanne McMann, physical "ed" instructor, to develop a wider program in physical education.

Dance Rumor Meeting
Faculty Adviser Agnes Smith, who has been responsible for many successful years of Kingston High School's outstanding newspaper, Dame Rumor, met with the 1946-47 staff Friday afternoon to plan the first edition of the year. Students are already looking forward to the first issue.

SWAMPED

THE GOVERNOR CLINTON TAILOR & CLEANER

Compelled to Discontinue Taking Dry Cleaning for One Week.....

Starting Sept. 9 to Sept. 14

We wish to thank our many customers, and beg their understanding at this time.

Safety is a gift that costs you nothing. But it is tremendously expensive to forget.

Grit says: "Among other eyesores these summer days are over-stuffed slacks."

Young Man (murmuring)—Darling, do marry me. I'm not rich or handsome like Perry Brown, and I haven't a new 1946 model car like he has. But I love you better than life itself.

Sweet Young Thing—And I love you too, dear. Er, who is this Perry Brown who has a new 1946 model car?

And then many careless drivers find themselves carless.

Tourist—How far is it from Washington to Baltimore?

Officer—Forty miles.

Tourist—And how far is it from Baltimore to Washington?

Officer—Why, the same distance, of course.

Tourist—Of course not. It's a week from Christmas to New Years, but it doesn't follow that it's a week from New Years to Christmas.

You wonder what's going to become of the human race? Then a baby's born and you have the answer.

Definitions:

Pedestrian: A person who failed to keep up payments on his automobile.

Horse Sense: What the auto will always lack no matter how much it is improved.

First Woman—I suppose the young man thought he would live with his wife's parents.

Second Woman—That's what he thought, but her father was too smart for him. Before they got back from the honeymoon the old man sold the home place and moved to a hotel.

Mother—But surely you didn't come right out and tell Jim you loved him?

Sweet Young Thing—No, Mother, he simply had to squeeze it out of me.

Cuthbert—I am unworthy of you.

Flora—You have $25,000 life insurance, haven't you?

Cuthbert—Yes, my darling.

Flora (thoughtfully)—You are not as unworthy as you might think.

A recent traffic survey made in a nearby city, showed that only 61 out of 525 drivers used hand signals to indicate their intentions to turn, included among which were a police and a state police safety patrol car. And then some folks wonder why automobile insurance rates are so high!

Most accidents are caused by faulty equipment between the cars.

Reade's Has Movie On New York State

A "March of Time" release covering New York state is being shown at Reade's Kingston Theatre and will be shown at the Broadway Theatre for three days starting Sunday.

The short subject filmed in the crisp, narrative style of "March of Time" will be of unusual interest to all local citizens.

Hanover Lodge Guests Enjoy Annual Hay-Ride

West Shokan, Sept. 6—The annual hay-ride sponsored by the host and hostess of Hanover Mountain Lodge was held Sunday afternoon and was a big success. An original feature was the use of Proprietor George Reiter's tractor to draw the hay truck.

The guests, numbering 30, evidently enjoyed every mile of the trip to Boiceville and return.

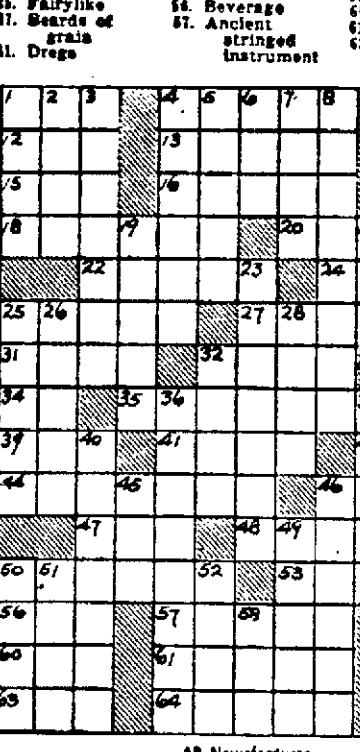

When the party returned to the lodge they found an outdoor wienner roast awaiting them.

The remainder of the evening was taken up with music, singing, dancing, games and tricks, completing a perfect day.

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

(For Hal Boyle)

Berlin, Sept. 7 (AP)—Every Friday afternoon between 50,000 and 60,000 Berlin youngsters, aged six to 18, have a date with the "A.M.I." soldiers.

At 1:30 p. m. they swarm onto 24 playing fields in the American sector of the city for an afternoon of supervised play. They are instructed by hundreds of American soldiers who regard themselves as teachers of democracy as well as sports coaches and their task as one of the most constructive contributions to the Allied occupation.

The Berlin program—unmatched by any other occupying power—is part of a German youth activities program launched several weeks ago by Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, theatre commander, with this pronouncement:

"This is an extremely important job, perhaps more important than any other one job we can do today. Other things we must do, such as denazification and industrialization of Germany, are negative. This is a positive action."

Take it from the man who heads the program, it's also a lot of fun. He is Maj. Emmette O. Huff, tall, soft-spoken, 40-year-old southerner, whose wife and daughter live at Greenwood, S. C. Huff, who weighs a trim 190 pounds, still is about as rugged and certainly as enthusiastic as when he played guard and tackle at the University of Georgia (1925-27) and served as line coach at the University of Miami (1934-36).

Germans Cooperate

Major Huff, athletic officer of special services at the U. S. Army's Berlin district headquarters, has the soldiers of 30 troop units working in his sports program. This was started August 14 with the cooperation of German officials from each borough in the American sector.

With G.I.s as their coaches and teammates, the German boys and girls were given a program of baseball, softball, tennis, volleyball, horseshoe pitching, badminton and ping pong. The youngest children play group games with prizes for the winners.

The U. S. Army supplied loads of athletic equipment, including 1,666 baseball bats, 540 baseball gloves, 202 volleyballs, 293 footballs and scores of tennis racquets, soccer balls, basketballs and other miscellany.

Really Like Baseball

There had been organized baseball schools for months on some Berlin fields. These were started after German youngsters had hung around G.I. fields, chasing fungoes and carrying bats for the players. When supervised play started, attendance boomed. Kids are welcome from the Russian, British and French sectors of the city and baseball's fame is spreading around the town.

"The kids are thirsty for it," Huff says. "It's been a long time since they've had any opportunity for competitive play, and they like the friendly, big-brother attitude of our soldiers. They are catching on well to American games, particularly softball. We also expect to give them American football, but this will have hard going against soccer."

Troops Enjoy It Too

"Tactical troops aiding in the program also seem to enjoy participation. Personally, I think it's one of the most important things we can do in the occupation. We give the kids fun and combat juvenile delinquency. We not only combat mischief, but show the youths our way of life through sports."

Flashes of Life

Sketched in Brief

Backfire
Hayward, Calif., Sept. 7 (AP)—City Councilman Jack Holland, who has been making loud demands for better law enforcement by Hayward policemen, was given a ticket by Policeman Gerald Cost for making a U-turn.

Fined $3 by Judge Jacob Hunter, Holland paid off with the remark, "We asked for law enforcement and this is evidence that we are getting it."

Reluctant
Tulsa, Okla., Sept. 7 (AP)—Sheriff Garland Marrs reluctantly complied with a court order to return a bottle of rum taken from a Tulsa in a liquor raid—but not before the sheriff looked long and well into a law book.

The defendant, on trial on a charge of liquor possession in dry Oklahoma, took the stand in his own defense and testified the rum was for his personal use. Oklahomans are entitled to possess one gallon for personal consumption.

Big Hearted
Dallas, Tex., Sept. 7 (AP)—On June 13, 1944, E. H. Peach of Dallas reported his bicycle stolen. Yesterday, officers found it—and Peach gave it to the nine-year-old boy who had it.

Accompanied by his parents, the lad brought it to the police station for registration. They explained that they had bought it from a man for $20.

"He was so proud of it," he explained, "I couldn't disappoint him."

Kissing Game
Cissna Park, Ill., Sept. 7 (AP)—John Bishop, 93, who says "acting like a young feller" in a kissing game when he was 70 nearly cost his life, today joined his 89 year old wife, Carrie May, in observing their 70th wedding anniversary.

A justice of the peace for 40 years, Bishop said he broke his hip 23 years ago when he slipped and fell while he was running around chairs at a party, playing a kissing game.

Dog Gone, Too
Springfield, Ill., Sept. 7 (AP)—"Spot" is missing but Mrs. C. E. Hobbs told police it would do no good to whistle for him.

She explained that when her pet dog, "Spot," a setter, died several months ago she had a wooden replica made from a colored photograph of the dog.

Last night, she said some one stole the replica.

SOUTH RONDOUT

South Rondout, Sept. 6—Connelly school opened after the summer vacation on Tuesday, with the teachers, Miss Clara Van Steenburg and Miss Mary Norton in charge.

Free Goody of New York and Howard Shaughnessy of Kingston were callers in the village on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ross and son Bobby of Troy, spent the holiday week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Maurer, parents of Mrs. Ross.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan White of Newark, N. J., were week-end guests of their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Wesley.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Avery have purchased the E. B. Haines house on Second street.

Mr. and Mrs. McCormick of Jersey were guests at the E. Scherer home.

Mrs. M. Ryan of Palisade Park, N. Y., has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wesley had a dinner guests on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wesley and daughter Lillian, of Port Ewen; Miss Helen Winchell, of Atwood, and Mr. and Mrs. White of Newark, N. J.

Hasbrouck Engine Co. Auxiliary will sponsor a card party at St. Leo's Hall, Port Ewen, on Wednesday evening, September 11. The public is invited.

The first barber of Rome had a statue erected to his memory after death.

G.I.'s Find Loopholes To Marry Frauleins

Frankfurt, Germany, Sept. 7 (AP)—Enterprising G.I.'s keep United States military officials busy plugging loopholes they discover in the army's ban on their marriage to German frauleins.

The army newspaper, Stars and Stripes, reported this new example today:

A few months ago three ingenious G.I.'s dusted off a 33-year-old German law which permitted a German with opportunity of emigration to be declared stateless, thus renouncing German citizenship.

The soldiers—unidentified—got their frauleins declared stateless then married them the day they were discharged from the army and before signing War Department contracts, thus evading military punishment.

A flood of applications from "two or three hundred" other German girls willing to renounce their citizenship to marry Americans followed.

But they were too late, military government had plugged that loophole by suspending the 1913 German law.

Officials now are wondering what lovelocks G.I.'s will try next.

The word greenhorn originally was applied to a deer or other animal with newly grown horns.

Redeployment

(By The Associated Press)
More than 3,200 service personnel are due to embark today from two transports at west coast ports.

Ships arriving:
At San Francisco
Marine Adder from Yokohama, 3,118 army, one navy.
At Seattle
Usat St. Loaf from Alaska, 143 army.

Old Stuff
Murals excavated upon the site of Pompeii—destroyed in 79 A.D.—depict inhabitants of that all-fated city wearing hats and bonnets.

Shenandoah is a modification of an Inchoquo word meaning "land of big mountains."

GRASPING THE LUGGAGE PROBLEM

Mrs. Ingeborg Rasmussen of Los Angeles, Calif., makes use of an idle hand-truck on the dock at New York to make sure that her trunks get aboard the ship Grigsby despite the strike which has paralyzed the port. The Grigsby was scheduled to sail the next day.

Russians May Find Stuttgart Speech To Their Liking

London, Sept. 7 (AP)—The influential Times suggested editorially today that Russia may find much to her liking in the proposals made by Secretary of State James F. Byrnes at Stuttgart yesterday.

"As for Russia," the Times commented, "there is much in Byrnes' proposals which she might welcome. She was first to call for central German government; she has laid the greatest stress on German unity and the importance of retaining the Ruhr and the Rhineland as part of Germany."

"She would be reassured by Byrnes' expressed determination to carry out the reparations plan as agreed on at Potsdam."

London's morning papers devoted most of their scanty editorial space to praise of the speech, with the Laborite Daily Herald viewing it as "a bid to break the deadlock between the occupying powers and by its forthrightness to enforce action."

The Liberal News Chronicle and the Yorkshire Post took a dim view of the German's ability to govern themselves, as suggested by the secretary, but the Post endorsed the "underlying principle" and the News Chronicle welcomed "the forthright declaration that America intends to retain her interest in Europe."

The conservative Daily Mail termed the speech "a breath of fresh air."

ROSENDALE

Rosendale, Sept. 6—Earl Mack, master, presided at the bi-monthly meeting of the Grange. Henry Mollenhauer was delighted to report, as chairman of the Fair committee, that Rosendale Grange had won a blue ribbon for their booth at the Ulster County Fair.

The literary hour was in charge of Mrs. C. Kraemer. It consisted of singing by the Grange, a poem by Mrs. Neal Hotaling, roll-call of favorite songs—the songs sung by the Grange members, poem by Mrs. C. Kraemer, flower guessing game, presentation of blue ribbon, a reading by Mrs. Kraemer, a short address on the tomato blight and other seasonal farm topics.

At the next meeting of the Grange there will be an auction sale at the regular lecture hour. Members are asked to bring or send some articles to be sold.

Friends of Mrs. Henry Mollenhauer will be glad to learn that she is improving at Vassar Hospital, Poughkeepsie.

Capt. Robertson Is Acquitted of Charges

Bad Nauheim, Germany, Sept. 7 (AP)—Capt. Joseph A. Robertson of Toledo, Ohio, was acquitted by a military court today of charges that he authorized and permitted cruelty to American soldier prisoners in the U. S. Army's Lichfield, England, guardhouse.

Robertson, former commander of a guard company at Lichfield, was the last of 11 officers and 10 enlisted guards to be tried in connection with mistreatment of prisoners there during the last year of the war.

His acquittal left the final score on the trials: Nine enlisted guards and four officers convicted, one enlisted guard and two officers acquitted.

SHOKAN

Shokan, Aug. 7—Seth Everett, a native of the old village of Shokan, was a caller at the home of Mrs. Elwyn Winchell last Monday.

Miss Jean Carpenter, who is spending a week at the James Carpenter camp here, expects to resume her studies at a girls' college in New Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vincent, Port Ewen couple who resided in this section many years ago, were callers in the village during the week.

Walter Elmendorf writes that he and his daughter, Mrs. Clifford Shokan, enjoyed their recent trip to Shokan very much. He reports that the blight has struck ripening tomatoes in Tioga county.

Leonard Cucicmo and family have returned to New York after spending several months at the home of Mrs. Guglielmo's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rodriguez.

John Leacock and Joe Anthony are new students at the Kingston High School this term.

The number of certified civil airman now is more than ten times the prewar total, or about 312,000.

"She would be reassured by Byrnes' expressed determination to carry out the reparations plan as agreed on at Potsdam."

London's morning papers devoted most of their scanty editorial space to praise of the speech, with the Labor Daily Herald viewing it as "a bid to break the deadlock between the occupying powers and by its forthrightness to enforce action."

The Liberal News Chronicle and the Yorkshire Post took a dim view of the German's ability to govern themselves, as suggested by the secretary, but the Post endorsed the "underlying principle" and the News Chronicle welcomed "the forthright declaration that America intends to retain her interest in Europe."

The conservative Daily Mail termed the speech "a breath of fresh air."

G.I.'s Find Loopholes To Marry Frauleins

Frankfurt, Germany, Sept. 7 (AP)—Enterprising G.I.'s keep United States military officials busy plugging loop-holes they discover in the army's ban on their marriage to German frauleins.

The army newspaper, Stars and Stripes, reported this new example today:

A few months ago three ingenious G.I.'s dusted off a 33-year-old German law which permitted a German with opportunity of emigration to be declared stateless, thus renouncing German citizenship.

The soldiers—unidentified—got their frauleins declared stateless then married them the day they were discharged from the army and before signing War Department contracts, thus evading military punishment.

A flood of applications from "two or three hundred" other German girls willing to renounce their citizenship to marry Americans followed.

But they were too late. military government had plugged that loop-hole by suspending the 1913 German law.

Officials now are wondering what lovelies G.I.'s will try next.

The word greenhorn originally was applied to a deer or other animal with newly grown horns.

California Second

California ranks next to New York as a consumer of floor and wall tile, accounting for about 15 per cent of a total consumption in the United States.

Capt. Robertson Is Acquitted of Charges

Bad Nauheim, Germany, Sept. 7 (AP)—Capt. Joseph A. Robertson of Toledo, Ohio, was acquitted by a military court today of charges that he authorized and permitted cruelty to American soldier prisoners in the U. S. Army's Lichfield, England, guardhouse.

Robertson, former commander of a guard company at Lichfield, was the last of six officers and 10 enlisted guards to be tried in connection with mistreatment of prisoners there during the last year of the war.

His acquittal left the final score on the trials: Nine enlisted guards and four officers convicted, one enlisted guard and two officers acquitted.

Miss Jean Carpenter, who is spending a week at the James Carpenter camp here, expects to resume her studies at a girls' college in New Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vincent, Port Ewen couple who resided in this section many years ago, were callers in the village during the week.

Walter Elmendorf writes that he and his daughter, Mrs. Clifford Hull, enjoyed their recent trip to Shokan very much. He reports that the blight has struck ripening tomatoes in Tioga county.

Leonard Guglielmo and family have returned to New York after spending several months at the home of Mrs. Guglielmo's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rodriguez.

John Leacock and Joe Anthony are new students at the Kingston High School this term.

The number of certified civil airmen now is more than ten times the prewar total, or about 342,000.

ROSENDALE
Rosedale, Sept. 6—Earl Mack, master, presided at the bi-monthly meeting of the Grange. Henry Mollenhauer was delighted to report, as chairman of the Fair committee, that Rosendale Grange had won a blue ribbon for their booth at the Ulster County Fair.

The literary hour was in charge of Mrs. C. Kraemer. It consisted of singing by the Grange, a poem by Mrs. Neal Hotaling, roll-call of favorite songs—the songs sung by the Grange members, poem by Mrs. C. Kraemer, flower guessing game, presentation of blue ribbon, a reading by Mrs. Kraemer, a short address on the tomato blight and other seasonal farm topics.

At the next meeting of the Grange there will be an auction sale at the regular lecture hour. Members are asked to bring or send some articles to be sold.

Friends of Mrs. Henry Mollenhauer will be glad to learn that she is improving at Vassar Hospital, Poughkeepsie.
